Diast twenty years, enjoyed the most extensive practice in private diseases of any medical man in New York. He can cure the most agravated cases of this disease, and mild cases removed in two days. Dr. Cooper can cure the worst form, in from two to three weeks, of constitutional debility, brought on by a secret habit indulred in by young men. This, when too frequently indulred in, begets dyspepsia, weakness of the limbs and small of the back, confusion of the intellect, and aversion to society. It affords Dr. C. unbounded pleasure to be able to refer to many persons who, after safforings silently for a long time, have been restored by him to perfect health. All cases undertaken, treated with candor.

DR. WARD MAKES ASTONISHING CURES, SUCH as no other Doctor can do. Eliter a cure or great amendment before twenty-four hours. To contract disease is made mere nothing under our treatment, which is science brought to perfection. Remember is, reader. All other methods of cure are dreadful, were than the disease, which they only translate to some other place, instead of exterminating. Office, corner of Canal street and Broadway.

DR. WARD, DEVOTED TO DELICATE DISEASES, makes the specdiest cures. All who have contracted a private disease, make early application. Our troatment is the admiration even of physicians. The disappointed are certain of a cure from us, however much other doctors have failed. Immediate relief aforded. No fee required. Book gratis. Consultations private. Office, corner Canal street, and Broadway.

DR. WARD IS OF SIGNAL SERVICE TO THE UNfortunate, his treatment quickly removing the miserable patient from suffering and detection. He cures all the difficult cases that have dened others. Fortunate are those coming to him, for they are well before other doctors would have made any improvement. Book gratis, Consultations private. Office, corner Canal street and Broadway. DR. WARD'S MAGICAL TREATMENT.—UNPARALleled success.—Patients cored, however long or hadly afflicted. Never any failures, which is more than other physcians can affirm. Innomerable cases progress in defiance of all treatment known hitherto; but by our wonderful proparations, and assiduous application of them, we cure or relieve instantaneously. The disappointed pinck up hope at once on coming to us. Office, corner of Canal street and

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMpanion—By Dr. A. M. Mauriceau, Professor of Diceases of Women-Twentiethedition, Prace, pp. 259-Price, $1.—Years of suffering, of physical and mental anguish to many an affectionate wife, and pecuniary difficulties to the husband, might have been spared by a timely possession of this work. It is intended especially for the magnicular theorem, which should be known to them particularly.

To those whose health does not permit of an increase of family, it is of special importance.

Hiere, also, every female—the wife—the mother—tife one either budding into womanhood, or the other in the decline of years—in whom nature contemplates an important change, can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies, and most certain mode of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject.

(Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Dayton, Ohio.)

Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU:—

My Dear Sha-My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some months before and during her confinement—every successive one more and more debilitating and prograting hard, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, seepsired of I supposed this state of things was inovitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this time (now about two months) I heard your book highly speken of, as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, I cannot express to you the relieft inforted my distressed mind, and the jay its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. Desonmany provided a remedy. It opened a prespect to me, which I little conceived was possible. But for this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wife would have been in her greve, and my children left motherless.

It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the transmitted by mail, free of potage, to any part of the United States. All letters must be addressed, pot paid, to Br. A. M. Mauriceau, Box 1,224 New York city. Office 128 Liberty street.
